SMOKES A NECESSITY, TESTIFIES SOLDIER

Sergeant in France Ranks Tobacco Next to Gas Mask and Helmet.

THANKS 'SUN' FUND DONOR

More Entertainers Volunteer for Big Party in Park Ave. Hotel To-night.

What do our soldiers in France want, what belps them most and what are they all things else while they are fighting our battles Over There?

You will find the answer to each of these questions in this letter addressed by Sergeant Meyer Rosenberg of Headquarters Company, Thirtieth Infantry, to Dick S. Ramsay, president of the East River Savings Institution, who is one of the regular monthly contributors to THE Sen Tobacco Fund :

"Dear Friend: Your generosity has had the honor of bringing thoughts of Home and Mother to my crew of nine. who join me in my feeble attempts at expressing my gratitude.

"Your gift ranks with a soldier's ne cessities, which are as follows:

"1. Gas mask. 2. Steel helmet. 3 Smokes, & Gillette. Nos. 1 and 2 are needed to keep us alive and Nos. 3 and 4 are for the purpose of keeping us in

"May I, under the penalty of being secured of soliciting, ask something of you? Buy a stamp a day for the boys across the sea, that they may the quicker steam past the Statue of Liberty!"

Park Avenue Party To-night.

Smokes, it will be observed, are placed next to those other life savers, the gas mask and the steel helmet. A War Savings Stamp, or at least a Thrift Stamp, as Sergeant Rosenberg urges, should be bought by everybody every entertainment on the tobacco fund's list, the party being offered this very night by the Park Avenue Hotel, Park avenue. Thirty-second and Thirty-third streets. Santi, a well known dancer, who has preared at entertainments for the appeared at entertainments for the smoke fund, again will do her "bit" for the soldiers at this party. She has writ-ten the following letter to the fund: "Even at this late day, please let me thank you for your generous donation of smokes which you sent across to the soldiers in my name.

of smokes which you sent across to the soldiers in my name. . . I was overwhelmed when I began to receive the cards of appreciation from the boys. They gave me a thrill of joy, coming as they did from so many different camps. I shall cherish them always as my most direct achievement in giving the boys just a little enjoyment, which is what all those who stay at home want to do.

"Thank you again for bringing me in touch personally with some of our wonderful Sammies through a fund so full of patriotism and comradeship."

Miss Grace Nelson, now singing in the borty-fourth Street Theatre, where the Hearts of the World" picture is being shown, is the latest singer to volunteer and other entertainers to-night will be: Amelia Bingham, Caro Roms, Georgia MacMullen, Peggy Shaw, Lillian Engle, Jimmy Flynn, Geoffrey C. Stein, Joe Santley, Ira Schuster and Solly Cohen. All are prepared and anxious to make a genuine hit for the cause. Mrs. Hazel Warner will describe what smokes mean to soldiers, and Lieut. Harold Stern has sugmented his orchestra to forty pieces for the great occasion. Nobody, it should seem, can stay away from the Park Avenue sunken gardens, where the fun is n arranging the entertainment George C. Brown, the Park Avenue's managing director, and Mrs. Harold L. Acton have been assisted by Harry Bigg, the purchasing agent. Other volunteer helpers tonight will be the Misses Peggy and Loretta First, Miss Josephine Nelson, Miss Yvonne Silverston, Miss Louise Acton, Miss Dorothy Jordan and Miss Ellar again before he also went to France. tor in these words what he thinks of the smoke gifts:

"Many thanks for the tobacco forwarded through The Sun. You cannot possibly realize how good it makes us fellows feel to know that we are being remembered by the folks back home, and I can truthfully say that our tobacco is one of the best friends we have on this side of the pond. We are all working hard for that wonderful time when we shall have accomplished our purpose over here and can return to the friends that have stood by us so nobly while we were over here doing our bit."

Idaho Heiress Gives Up Her Ranch for Patriotism.

Special Despaich to The Scs.
CAMP DIX. WRIGHTSTOWN, N. J., Aug.
22.—With five brothers in France, Miss Allene Haynes, heiress and owner of a ranch near Carson City, Idaho, travelled alone across the continent to bid good-by to a sixth brother, who is at Camp Dix awaiting overseas orders. To-day she filed an application to effer Red Cross work, declaring she wanted her family to be giving "100 per cent. service to the country."

The young woman, who took her first ride in an automobile when she "jit-neyed" from a nearby city to the camp, but who knows about bucking bronchos, Chinese cooks, rattlesnakes, roundups and Indian rites, is the only girl in a family of orphans.

When her brothers as members of the Idaho National Guard Artillery went to war she bade them each a cheerful farewell, then went back to run the 1,500 acre ranch. Learning that her youngest brother was temporarily stationed at Camp Dix she determined to see him again before he also went to France.
